

SOCIETY

WOMAN'S WORLD AND WORK . . .

True wisdom, laboring to expand hearts others readily.
False wisdom, trying to stem smooth up her mind to agreement.

—Tupper.

Can gold-eain passion or make reason shirk?
Can we dig peace or wisdom from the mud?
Wisdom to gold prefer; for bacham less
To make our fortune that our happiness.

—Young.

Musical

Pupils of Miss Anna Kriegerberg appeared in a program of piano recitations yesterday morning in the studio of the Brooks-Millay School. Following was the program given by Garner's orchestra. "Dance Nights," May 16, "The South Wind," June 13, "Rustic Dances," Rich and Holmes, "Heiland Laddie," Martha Watson.

Smith "Queen of the Fairies," Geraldine Giles, assisted by Anna Strickland.

Perber "Gigliani," Defenders

Mrs. and Mrs. John H. G. Bernau

Mrs. and Mrs. John